2.2	Question	Does CRRA have a legal opinion or advisory opinion from the Attorney General, Office of State Ethics, or outside counsel clarifying that CRRA may retain lobbyists registered with the Office of State Ethics if they do not lobby state officials or agencies on behalf of CRRA?
	Answer	CRRA does not have such an opinion. CRRA does have contracts with a number of firms and individuals who are registered with the Office of State Ethics, but such firms and individuals are prohibited by their contracts from lobbying on behalf of CRRA and CRRA does not request any lobbying by such firms and individuals on behalf of CRRA.
