

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

February 18, 2004

Further Information:

Paul Nonnenmacher, (860) 757-7771

E-mail: pnonnenmacher@crra.org

Garbage Museum to hold Family Fun Day March 13

Tours, crafts, movies, exhibits all offered at no charge

STRATFORD, Conn. – The Connecticut Resources Recovery Authority Garbage Museum will hold another of its popular Family Fun Day events on Saturday, March 13, 10 a.m. to 2 p.m.

The day's activities will include museum and recycling center tours, movies and a craft activity using recycled materials. Admission is free.

The Garbage Museum is located at 1410 Honeyspot Road Extension, just off Lordship Boulevard.

For more information or directions, call (203) 381-9571 or, on the Web, go to <http://www.crra.org> and click on "Education Centers."

The Connecticut Resources Recovery Authority is a quasi-public agency whose mission is to work for – and in – the best interests of the municipalities of the state of Connecticut. CRRA's new board of directors and new management team develop and implement environmentally sound solutions and best practices for solid waste disposal and recycling management on behalf of municipalities. CRRA also runs educational programs through its Visitors Center in Hartford and Garbage Museum in Stratford. For more information about CRRA and its activities, visit <http://www.crra.org>.