Garbage Museum to Hold Family Fun Day May 7 Free Activities Offered at Stratford Education Center

STRATFORD, Conn. – The Connecticut Resources Recovery Authority Garbage Museum will hold its next Family Fun Day event on Saturday, May 7, from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m.

The day's activities will include tours of the museum, exhibits and recycling center, as well as movies, crafts from re-used materials and games. Additionally, visitors may create a special Mother's Day placemat to take home. All activities are free.

The Garbage Museum is located on 1410 Honeyspot Road Extension. For more information, contact (203)381-9571 or go to www.crra.org, click on education centers.

The Connecticut Resources Recovery Authority is a quasi-public agency whose mission is to work for – and in – the best interests of the municipalities of the state of Connecticut. CRRA's new board of directors and new management team develop and implement environmentally sound solutions and best practices for solid waste disposal and recycling management on behalf of municipalities. CRRA also runs environmental and recycling educational programs through its Visitors Center and Trash Museum in Hartford and Children's Garbage Museum in Stratford. For more information about CRRA and its activities, visit <http://www.crra.org>.
